

SPECIAL BEARING WILSON

Left Princeton This Morning for the Inaugural at Washington

ACCOMPANIED BY FAMILY

And Large Delegation of College Students—W. J. Bryan Silent on the Secretaryship of State.

Washington, March 3.—Fair Tuesday morning, probably followed by unsettled weather in the afternoon and night. Wind becoming variable Tuesday. This was the official weather announcement made by the bureau for inauguration day, issued today.

Wilmington, Del., March 3.—On Board the Wilson Special.—Justice Charles Grant Garrison of New Jersey is to be secretary of war and Franklin P. Lane of California, at present a member of the interstate commerce commission, will be secretary of the interior according to word today. This information was not obtained from Mr. Wilson, but from an intimate friend who is aboard the train for a part of the journey. The same source of information gave out the following names for the cabinet: Secretary of state, W. J. Bryan; secretary of treasury, Wm. G. McAdoo; attorney general, James McReynolds; secretary of commerce, Wm. C. Redfield, New York; secretary of navy, Joseph Daniels, North Carolina; secretary of labor, Wm. B. Wilson, Pennsylvania; postmaster general, Albert Burleson, Texas. This leaves but one position, secretary of agriculture, about which authoritative information is lacking. This, it is believed, will go to a college professor.

Princeton, N. J., March 3.—Woodrow Wilson left Princeton at 11 o'clock today for Washington to become president of the United States tomorrow. Mrs. Wilson, their three daughters, the Misses Margaret, Jessie and Eleanor, and an escort of 460 Princeton students accompanied him. The longest special that ever rolled out of Princeton carried Mr. Wilson and his family and his escort away. As it pulled out, the president-elect stood on the platform of the last of the 14 cars. Silk hat in hand, he looked down on a mass of fluttering handkerchiefs and banners. The smile on his lips vanished as the train gained headway. His lips were moving and the crowd at his feet heard him join in the singing of the college anthem, "Her Sons Shall Give While They Shall Live."

Washington, March 3.—William Jennings Bryan arrived at Washington today and was escorted by a reception committee to what is known as the presidential suite in a downtown hotel. Whether he arrived in the capacity of the future secretary of state, Mr. Bryan would not admit. When addressed as "Mr. Secretary," he merely smiled and said "Thank you."

Franklin K. Lane, of California, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, has accepted the post of secretary of the interior. Although Chairman Lane himself today refuses to affirm or deny the report of his selection, leaders in congress close to President-elect Wilson declare positively that Mr. Lane's formal acceptance of the portfolio has been sent to Mr. Wilson.

Philadelphia, March 3.—A locomotive drawing a special train carrying the Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry from New England to Washington for the inauguration blew up at East Railway, N. J., on the Pennsylvania Railroad at 9:25 a. m. The engineer and fireman were badly injured, but no passengers were hurt. Three of the four trucks were blocked, interfering with inauguration traffic.

New York, March 3.—Silk hats of uncertain vintage, frock coats and grey gloves were conspicuous in and about the Pennsylvania B. & O. terminals today. Tammany 2500 strong, was leaving for Washington for the first time in 20 years. The railroads estimated that about 40,000 persons in all would be handled out of New York for Washington today.

Washington, March 3.—Washington today awaits the coming of Woodrow Wilson, next president of the United States. Simple plans to welcome him this afternoon are ready, and every detail is complete for the inauguration ceremonies.

BLAIR COMPANY PREPARES TO OPERATE UPON LARGER SCALE PLACES ORDERS FOR MATERIAL

The directors of the Blair Manufacturing Company have just authorized the president and general manager to enter into a contract for material with which to build 100 additional motor trucks.

The orders for trucks which have been received within the past few weeks and the prospects reported by the company's agents in Chicago, New York, Boston and elsewhere, caused the directors to order material for truck construction upon a comparatively large scale. The present plant has the floor space and facilities for making at least 1000 trucks per annum.

President McCune expects to leave for the East the first of the week on important business connected with this new industry.

A message just received from the Buffalo man who bought the new dump truck which was exhibited in front of the Trust Building a few days ago, says he is delighted with and the attendant military and civil demonstration tomorrow.

One of Mr. Wilson's last acts as a private citizen will be to call, with Mrs. Wilson, upon the president of the United States and Mrs. Taft.

The president-elect and Mrs. Wilson soon after their arrival will receive Colonel Spencer S. Crosby, chief aid to the president, who will escort them to the White House in the president's automobile. The meeting, it is planned, will be brief, and the president-elect and Mrs. Wilson will return to their hotel to a family dinner.

Among the arrivals in Washington last night were Governor Sulzer of New York and his staff, with them was William G. McAdoo, who is to be secretary of the treasury, according to unofficial announcements. Mr. McAdoo received congratulations upon a cabinet appointment modestly, without betraying any confidence as to his acceptance of the treasury portfolio.

RUBBER WORKER AT AKRON STABS HIS BROTHER

Akron, O., March 3.—Peter Haggen, a striking rubber worker, was arrested today on a charge of cutting with intent to kill. It is alleged that he approached his brother who would not leave work, for not joining the strikers and in the altercation that followed, stabbed him in the breast.

DIES UPON REACHING HOME.

Circleville, March 3.—John Fissell, aged 73, postoffice money order clerk for 15 years here, worked until 9 o'clock Saturday night and died suddenly upon arrival at his residence.

ACCUSED OF HORSE STEALING.

Bowling Green, March 3.—George Wolfe, aged 21, of Lorain, was captured north of Weston Sunday and taken back to Elkhart to answer to a charge of stealing a team from Geo. Dellefield, Feb. 18.

Texas Look to Governor Colquitt to Protect Their Interests

Governor O. B. Colquitt has ordered the Texas National Guard to be in readiness to protect Texas border towns from the marauding bands of Mexican guerrillas, who are active near the boundary line. Governor Colquitt has sent four companies of militia to Brownsville, but will not permit his troops to cross the border unless he receives instructions from Washington to do so.

the machine, and that it is altogether probable several additional trucks of the same design will be ordered.

At the directors' meeting, the executive committee, which was authorized to sell at par the remainder of the company's common stock, reported that less than $200,000 of this issue remains to be sold, and several sales of stock to some of the most conservative business men of the city were reported. The directors are increasing their holdings in the company and the majority of the stockholders have increased their financial interest in the Blair Company. This action upon their part has been due to the splendid showing made during the first year of the company's history and to the bright outlook for the future.

The Columbus agent of the Blair Manufacturing Company carried a large advertisement for the Blair truck in the Columbus Sunday newspapers.

LICENSE BILL SPECIAL ORDER FOR THURSDAY

Columbus, March 3.—Although not stopped entirely, the work of the legislature will be slowed down the first half of the week because many members are attending the inauguration in Washington on March 4.

The administration's compromise liquor license bill has been made a special order for Thursday at 2 o'clock. Although said not to be entirely satisfactory to the drys it is said no fight will be waged on the bill in the upper house where it is expected to pass with a large majority. Plans are being made to wage a fight on the measure next week when it reaches the lower house.

EXPIRES READING PROOFS.

Dayton, March 3.—While reading proofs of his latest book, Rev. J. J. Summerhill, retired minister of the Christian denomination and a noted writer and lecturer, succumbed to heart trouble.

THE BOY AND THE NEWSPAPER

By John P. FALLON.

One evening a boy came to his father as he was reading THE ADVOCATE, and told him that he was going to quit learning geography, as there was nothing interesting in it.

So the father said, "You're going into business after you leave school?"

"Sure," replied the boy eagerly, taking for granted that there was no more geography for him.

"Well, here's what a business man writes today," and he turned to an advertisement about Oriental Rugs, in which the life of the Orient was vividly portrayed.

"What do you think of that?" he queried.

"Bully," answered the boy.

"Now, that's geography," The boy looked dismayed.

"There's more to geography," continued the father, "than names of places. You find out why we send to Italy for silks, to Germany for toys, and why other nations come to buy from us."

Read the advertisements in THE ADVOCATE closely and constantly every day for the most important news. They will tell you where to buy to best advantage. Encourage your boys and girls to follow them carefully and gain a knowledge of the romance of business.

OUTBREAK MAY RESULT FROM CLASH

Four Mexicans Killed by U. S. Troops in a Sunday Clash

FIRED ON U. S. OFFICERS

Military Rule to be Inaugurated By Huerta. This Week — Deny Killing of Madero Soldiers.

Douglas, Ariz., March 3.—Over 75 armed ranch hands are co-operating with the United States troops now patrolling the border here. Since yesterday's fight between detachment of the Ninth United States cavalry (negro troops) and 50 Mexicans, in which four Mexicans were killed, feeling has run high on the Mexican side and the United States border patrol has been increased. Col. John F. Guilfoyle ordered that a particular watch be kept to prevent any sortie or reprisal by the Mexicans.

A friendly Mexican who crossed the border from Agua Prieta, Mexico, says the four dead men were regular soldiers attached to the Agua Prieta garrison.

According to the official report on the incident which Col. Guilfoyle is drawing up for presentation to the war department at Washington, the Mexicans started the trouble by wounding four United States officers who were standing near the Queen Smelting plant quietly talking among themselves.

Armed cowboys continued to pour into Douglas today, anxious to take a hand should any further trouble come as the result of yesterday's clash. Curious persons continued to beat the thickets where the Mexicans made their stand, looking for dead, but no bodies were found. The American soldiers reported that four Mexicans were killed and numerous others were wounded, but searchers were unable to find any bodies.

Mexico City, March 4.—The firm and energetic military rule promised by the new Mexican government under provisional President Huerta probably will be inaugurated this week. Huerta has had eight days of conference with various rebel chiefs or with commissioners sent by them.

The government is now disposed to consider irreconcilable all those rebels who continue to delay definite recognition of the new order of things.

The railroads between the capital and the north are still interrupted. There has been practically no mail from the United States for 15 days, except brought by a steamer to Vera Cruz.

There is no truth in the accounts published in the United States of the killing on Saturday by federal soldiers with machine guns of 100 mutinous irregular troops who had fought under the late President Francisco Madero. The story was based on the explosion of a number of firecrackers in the Santa Julia suburbs by a crowd of demonstrators.

SUFFRAGISTS ON PARADE IN WASHINGTON

Washington, March 3.—This was woman's day of political crowning glory short of actually possessing the universal right to vote, for several thousand of them turned out to form a great procession on Pennsylvania avenue to demonstrate the unity of their sex in its demand for the ballot. Even before the procession started enthusiastic cheers greeted the small detachments and a great wave of applause marked the progress of Gen. Rosalie Jones and her "little band of Thersas" as they proceeded to the rendezvous.

Men and women alike joined in the demonstration and the human walls that lined the route of march formed a sea of blue, white, red and yellow flags, and waving banners. The carrying out of the plans for the parade which was to form around the peace monument. Trumpeters sounded at intervals in the distance, and the sound of the advance of the parade started.

ELECTROCUTED BY FLYING KITE.

Portsmouth, Va., March 3.—While flying a kite yesterday, Sidney Bright, a 16-year-old boy, was instantly electrocuted. The boy attached a thin wire to the kite instead of string, and when his kite fell across an electric wire, 11,444 volts passed through his body, killing him instantly.

Dr. Friedmann to Protect His Cure By Patents.

(Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.)

New York, March 3.—Instead of opening offices here today as he had planned, Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann, a young German physician, has decided to test his tuberculosis serum before the New York County Medical society before he attempts any treatment of patients. This course was decided upon after a conference with the society which informed him that such a step would be necessary if he desired to obtain a license to practice.

NET INCOME OF GAS COMPANY FOR 10 YEARS COMPARED TO INVESTMENT

In common pleas court, upon the convening of court on Monday afternoon, the trial of the case of the City of Newark vs. the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel Company was resumed to the court.

The case was to have begun in the morning but Judge Harry Jewell before whom it is being tried, was delayed in his arrival from Delaware.

A. J. Drolet, auditor of the Logan Natural Gas and Fuel Company was put on the stand and his cross-examination was continued by Attorney F. A. Bolton, of counsel for plaintiff.

He submitted a statement of operations of the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel Co. from 1902 to 1911, inclusive, showing among other things the company's net earnings.

The aggregate amount of investment of the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel Company for this time was $4,930,348, which amount was used with which to compare the earnings of the company during the same period. The amounts differed in the different years.

The items of investment were buildings, rights of way, materials, labor, furniture, meters, line pipe, connections, fittings, etc.

The witness admitted that the rights of way were inventoried in 1902 at $3500, and raised in December of that year to $60,000. He explained that the $3500 was an inventory of physical property, and the $56,500 was arbitrarily added and represented intangible property, having a franchise value which was difficult to arrive at, and was estimated.

In 1902 there were no receipts from meter rentals; in 1903, no meter rentals; in 1904, meter surrenders $749; no rentals in 1905.

WOMAN IS ROBBED OF LARGE SUM

Wife of Wealthy Texas Land Owner Victim of Chicago Thugs

ASSAULTED ON STREET

And $43,500 Taken From Her Handbag—Dying at Hospital from Blow on Back of Head.

Chicago, March 3.—Activity of the Evanston police, who today investigated the loss of $41,000 by Mrs. Mabel Mills of San Antonio, at Evanston, Saturday night, served only to deepen the mystery.

It was reported and denied that Mrs. Mills had left the hospital, but Chief of Police Schaffer of Evanston was denied an interview when he called at the institution.

There were many opportunities for any one to have learned that Mrs. Mills was carrying a large sum. Police are working on the theory that some one saw Mrs. Mills take the money from her purse on an elevated train and followed her.

Chicago, March 3.—Mrs. Mabel Mills, wife of a wealthy land owner of San Antonio, is dying in an Evanston, Ill., hospital, after having been robbed of about $43,500 in that city Saturday night. Mrs. Mills is suffering from a wound in the back of her head, caused when she was felled by a blow.

According to information obtained by the police, Mrs. Mills came to Chicago from San Antonio less than a week ago and registered at a leading hotel. Shortly before noon on Saturday she is supposed to have drawn $45,000 from the bank and, on returning to the hotel, to have given the money into the care of the cashier, receiving a receipt therefor. When she returned for the money a short time later, it is said, she discovered that she had lost the receipt, but as she had made herself known to the cashier, she succeeded in getting the money back without trouble. In the afternoon she went to Evanston to attend a dinner at the home of a friend, carrying the $45,000 in a large brown handbag, a part of it being in a smaller purse inside the large bag.

After the dinner Mrs. Mills started back to Chicago, but on the way opened the handbag and discovered that the smaller purse was missing. She returned to Evanston, missed her way, and at 9:30 was seen walking by a policeman whom she did not accost. What happened during the next hour is not known. At 10:30 she staggered to a stranger's door and asked for assistance. A physician and her friends were summoned. The latter discovered the smaller purse, containing $1850, at their home. Later the handbag was found on the sidewalk, opened, and with the money missing.

The police are unable to understand why Mrs. Mills rode beyond her station on her return to Evanston and why the scene of her mishap should have been several blocks from the house at which she applied for aid. That she had the money was established by eyewitnesses.

When found, Mrs. Mills had in her possession about $50, a revolver three diamond rings and a gold watch. It was declared by her friends that she was the associate of her husband in selling lands in the West, was in the habit of carrying large sums and also a revolver to protect herself.

MADERO FAMILY WILL SAIL FOR UNITED STATES

Havana, March 3.—All members of the Madero family now in Cuba will sail for New York tomorrow. They are applying for the restoration of four state bonds in Cuba. The Madero family plan of leaving Havana and going to New York is being abandoned.

OFFICIALS BID TAFT GOODBYE

Washington, March 3.—President Taft held open house today and with his characteristic smile greeted political friends and foes. Although he was up until 2 o'clock this morning clearing his desk of important business, he was back at work early and ready to receive callers. Among the first who came to say goodbye was Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, U. S. A., and the bureau chiefs of the war department.

DYE WORKS

RESTITUTION IN
"PEARL OF ANTILLES"
Pastor Russell, Returning From Panama, Visits Cuba.
PREACHES IN HAVANA.

Modern Application of a Familiar Text.
What the Bible Means by "Restitution Times"—The Pastor Claims Each "Time" a Year, a Thousand Altogether and a Beginning Made.
Earth's Happy Day Nearing—A Little While, a Dark Hour May Intervene.

Havana, Cuba, March 2.—Pastor Russell is delighted with Cuba, and does not fail to call attention to the wide contrast between present conditions and those which prevailed so short a time ago, when this fair land suffered continually from yellow fever and other tropical ailments.

The Pastor referred to General Wood as the one through whose energy and skill Cuba's restitution and rejuvenation came about. "Honor to whom honor is due" appears to be one of Pastor Russell's mottoes. The Pastor's text was Acts 3:19-21: "Times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His Holy Prophets since the world began." He said:—

In Panama a week ago I saw one of the stupendous works of man in subduing, or conquering, the earth and making it suitable for his purposes. I testified to the people there, and to the millions who read my sermons, respecting the increased education of humanity through modern inventions, which speak to us of the dawning of the New Era long foretold in the Bible.

Today I point you to man's increasing skill along other lines. The laws of health and of disease are much better understood than ever in the past. The laws of chemistry applicable to nearly everything in life, are marvelously clear and greatly extended beyond anything of previous times. This increased knowledge lies close to the work of sanitation, which is so generally approved and so widely extended.

Millennial Work in Cuba.—The Pastor urged his congregation to consider this wonderful transformation of conditions in their fair island an exemplification of the great work which will prevail throughout the whole world very shortly. It properly raises our estimation of human intelligence, and of the beneficence of the United States Government, whose agent in this transforming work was General Wood. What has taken place so markedly in Cuba under sanitary regulation is gradually being accomplished all over the world. It marks the dawning of the New Day referred to in his text as "Times of Restitution of all things," which God has promised from the beginning.

Everywhere in the Scriptures the glorious work of human uplift is directly associated with Messiah's Kingdom. Perhaps many have expected the blessings to come in another way; nevertheless, now that they are coming, all should be able to see the facts and to acknowledge prophetic fulfillments. Is it any less true that the wilderness is coming to blossom as the rose because this is resulting from human energy—well-drilling and other irrigating projects? Surely not!

The poet sang:
"God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform."
And that mysterious way is usually through human instrumentality, as improved conditions here in Cuba abundantly witness. Instead of being disappointed that God is using humanity for the fulfillment of His glorious promises, we should all rejoice that mankind may be associated with the marvels of Divine Wisdom. Nevertheless, the best that has been attained here or anywhere is evidently far below the glorious standard of perfection which God declares to be the ultimate result.

could not be a redemption from sin, nor a restitution to a condition enjoyed before sin entered the world.

All such theories, therefore, are unscriptural. For this reason they are in antagonism to the Bible view, that man fell from God's image six thousand years ago; that he has passed through six great days in which has prevailed a reign of sin and death, induced by Satan at the beginning, and still, to some extent, influenced by him. Under this reign of sin and death, man has lost much of the Divine image, and has become brutal—more or less.

The redemptive work of Jesus is not to be understood as a change of the Divine Plan and an abandonment of the earth as a Paradise, populated by humans in the mental and moral likeness of the Creator. God changes not. The mistake was merely one of course, not authorized by the Bible.

The time for Restitution was not due when Jesus gave His life as man's redemption-price; but those "times," or years, of Restitution are due now; for we are living in the dawning time of the great Seventh Day in Thousand-Year Days. Messiah's first work as the great King of earth is about to be inaugurated. He is about to blind Satan—"that old serpent, the Devil." He is about to bless, not only the earth, but also humanity, by rolling away the original curse.

Messiah's Kingdom is pictured as a Day ushered in by a glorious sunrise of truth and grace. In contrast with its light and knowledge, all the past six thousand years are figuratively spoken of as darkness. (Isaiah 60:2.) But the Sun of Righteousness now arises with healing in His beams. Gradually, not suddenly, the sun arises; and so the Restitution blessings are coming in gradually, not suddenly.

Sometimes in the early morning there is a thunder storm, which for a brief space hinders the dawning of the day. But it results in the drenching of the earth with a refreshing shower. So, according to the Bible, will this New Day of Messiah's Kingdom be ushered in by a terrific storm of trouble. But it will be short; and its effects upon the earth will be refreshing. The great contrast between the righteousness of the future and the sin of the present will be so conspicuous that all will enjoy the new condition: "The desire of all nations shall come."—Haggai 2:7.

"God Moves in a Mysterious Way."

God has withheld the knowledge of certain features of His Divine Program—for our good, we may be sure. The supposition upon which many of us went in times past is untenable. We supposed that God in the Bible had set forth in plain terms everything respecting His Plan. When we could not find it, we tried to manufacture it. It is good to study the Word, even if we do not understand. And if our forefathers got themselves into difficulties through errors of judgment in studying God's Word, we may be sure that they were not especially disadvantaged thereby. Not seeing the Divine purpose, they were required to exercise more faith. But that greater amount of faith was not then more difficult, probably, than the less amount now necessary.

Christian theologians become so intent in their reasoning upon the Heavenly things appertaining to the Church that they forget all about the world. As cruelty became more pronounced the work of God was less studied. It is not strange that our forefathers concluded that all except the Church would be eternally tormented. And when they concluded this to be God's Plan, it is not surprising that they concluded to join in the persecution themselves. Thus it comes that the pages of history are the records of bloody persecutions—sometimes directly from Christians, and sometimes indirectly from Christians through earthly governments.

Thus the entire civilized world has become intoxicated with the wine of false doctrine from the cup of the woman who sat upon the beast, falsely representing herself as the Bride of Christ, but living in figurative harlotry with the kingdoms of this world. (Revelation 17:1-5; 18:1.) As we get over the stupefaction of our intoxication of error, reason begins to return to us. The Apostle calls this "the spirit of a sound mind."

We must not boast. There is still considerable darkness. But we are nearing the glorious light! The Divine Character is shining out as it was never seen before! Divine Love and Mercy are conspicuous. Divine Justice is seen in its true light. Proportionately as we see these things, our souls magnify and glorify the Lord, who is good, and whose Mercy endureth forever.

Gathering of the Elect Now.

The work of this present Age is unquestionably the gathering of God's Elect. It is equally unquestionable that the saints are the Elect. St. Paul points out to us that this is God's foreordination; namely, that all who will be elected in this present Age must be copies of God's dear Son. This is what is predestinated—the terms and conditions, the requirements and qualifications, of the Elect. (Romans 8:29, 30.) God will permit none others to be of that number. But not a word is said in the Scriptures about God's having predestinated the non-elect to torment. Quite to the contrary, His predestination for the non-elect is that they shall be blessed by the Elect after the Elect Church is completed, after the Church, the Bride, shall have entered with her Bridegroom—Lord into the glories of Messiah's Kingdom.

The Elect are the Seed of Abraham. First of all, the natural seed were elected, or chosen, of God to special privileges and opportunities under the Law Covenant; while the remainder of the world, called Gentiles, were allowed for centuries after centuries to go down to death without God, having no hope in the world. There was a hope for them, but they knew not of it, because God's time for revealing it to them had not yet come. If the Jews told the outsiders that they would ultimately bless all nations, the others laughed at such a suggestion, feeling that they were as competent to bless the world as were the Jews.

This, indeed, was what the Babylonians tried. Next after them came the Medes and Persians; after them the Greeks; and still later came the Romans. Each of these stamped their ideas upon the world to the best of their ability, and gave their laws. Each attempted to show how much more competent than the others it was for earthly rulership. But, alas! none of them ruled satisfactorily or brought in the desire of all nations. Meantime, also, the Jews waited for the fulfillment of their promises. Meantime, also, God renewed the promises, and assured them that He would send the Messiah to be their Deliverer shortly.

When Jesus came, He came not as a warrior, like Alexander the Great or Napoleon. He was meek and lowly of heart; and He called the poor, the maimed, the halt—mentally, morally and physically—to His standard. Not unnaturally the Jewish leaders, repudiated Him and crucified Him, declaring that He did not represent their ideals and must be a deceiver.—1 Corinthians 2:7, 8.

Similarly they treated His followers. As St. Paul declared, "As deceivers and yet true," the early Christians suffered reproach. The Jews understood not God's Message. They saw not that it was necessary for Jesus to die, "the just for the unjust," to be a redemption-price for the sins of the world. They saw not that such a death was necessary to Him, in order that He might attain the glory, honor and immortality of the future. They saw not that the disciples that Jesus called were saints. However weak these were, mentally and morally, their hearts were loyal, and they strove to walk in the footsteps of Jesus.

People have not realized that, during this Gospel Age, God has been accepting the saintly ones who come unto the Father through the Savior. They have not seen that the suffering of these was necessary for their testing and proving, and for their instruction in righteousness, that they might be fully qualified for glory, honor and immortality and joint-heirship with Christ their Redeemer.

St. Paul speaks of the Church as a Mystery class. It is a Mystery to the world; first, it is the selecting of a class the world would never think of choosing—a humble, meek class; second, neither the Jews nor the world realize that this class constitutes the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, to bless all the families of the earth.

Nevertheless God's great Plan goes on, whether they know or do not know. Ultimately it will work out a glorious result. Then Natural Israel and all nations will know. Then the Church, the Elect, the Seed, the Bride, the Lamb's Wife, will be joined to Him in bonds of perpetual love, zeal and faithfulness. Then will begin the very blessing God so long ago declared, saying to Abraham, "In thee and in thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed."—Gen. 12:3; 18:18; 22:18; 26:4.

Abraham's Spiritual Seed.

God has not changed His purposes. (Malachi 3:6.) He created man an earthly being. He permitted him to fall. He purposed his redemption through Jesus. He purposed the calling of the Church of Christ, to be His associates in the Kingdom. He purposed that this Kingdom should be a Spiritual one: "Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." (1 Corinthians 15:50.) He purposed that this Spiritual Kingdom should bless the world with Restitution blessings—bringing back to perfection all the willing and obedient of Adam's race.

This is the Program still. We merely got a wrong impression when we thought that God's purpose was the bringing of all mankind to Heavenly conditions and nature. No, not that blessed experience is only for the Church class. God still purposes Restitution for the world of mankind. In Abraham's Seed all the families of the earth will be blessed.

If we see signs of these great blessings beginning now, it is a sure indication that the Elect must be almost complete. And if that be true, all of us who have vowed consecration to the Lord and His service should be thoroughly awake to our blessings and privileges, and to the fact that the time of most crucial testing is even now at the door. If we are to make out calling and our election sure, we must lose no opportunity for demonstrating that we are loyal to God and His Word, and to the brethren. Along these very lines we must expect tests, too. How else could we be proved?

Moreover, now is the time to expect light on the Divine Word and Plan; and we are getting it. We are seeing the difference between human nature and Divine nature, between the earthly blessing that is to come to mankind and the "high calling" which is the portion of the Elect. God declares that the Mystery hidden from the past Ages and Dispensations, which He kept secret from the beginning of the world, is to come to be a mystery. The Mystery becomes daily, yea, hourly, less pronounced, as we come into that condition of mind in which God will reveal to us His arrangements. Truly ours is a glorious time! Let us avail ourselves of the present glorious opportunities for Bible study and growth in knowledge, grace and love. Let us walk worthy of the light; and rejoicingly let us note that Jesus is yet to be "the Light of the world"—which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.—John 1:9.

OBITUARY

Mrs. D. W. EARLY.
Mrs. D. W. Early, of North Fourth street, died Sunday evening, after a short illness, at her home, 132 South Williams street. She was a member of the First Baptist church, and was a native of Indiana. She was 72 years of age. Her husband, D. W. Early, died about a year ago. She is survived by a son, D. W. Early, Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Early.

J. W. HEIM.
John Wesley Heim, a well known molder at the W. C. plant, died at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening, after a short illness, at his home, 132 South Williams street. He was 65 years of age. He is survived by a wife and two children.

Mrs. KATHERINE HORTON.
Mrs. Katherine Horton, aged 84 years, a pioneer settler of Newton township, died Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock, of infirmities due to advanced years. Her death was unexpected. Mrs. Horton was born in Jefferson county, this state, March 18, 1829, and came to this county while quite young. Except for a short time in which she lived in Knox county after her marriage, she has always resided in Newton township. She was the widow of Robert D. Horton.

She is survived by six children, Basil Horton and Miss Linda Horton, with whom she resided; Mrs. Maggie Hall, of Lima; Mrs. Mary Benear, James E. Horton, and Justice George W. Horton of this city. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, standard time, at the Lutheran church, St. Louisville. Interment at Evans cemetery, east of St. Louisville.

EMELINE H. WRIGHT.
Mrs. Emeline Wright, aged 85, died at her home in Shields street Sunday morning after an illness that was complicated with weakness incident to extreme age. The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon at the home, and the remains will be shipped to Delaware Tuesday morning for interment.

MISS FRANCES WARMAN.
Miss Frances Warman of 70 Wing street, passed away quietly and peacefully at 6:05 o'clock Sunday evening, at the age of 12 years, 3 months and 7 days. She was a pupil of the Arch street school, in the seventh grade, and was an exceptionally bright and lovable girl, loved by all who knew her. The news of her death will be a great shock to her many friends.

Death was due to diabetes, after a very brief illness. Funeral services will be held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many sleep, but not forever. There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part, no, never, On the resurrection morn.

From the deepest caves of ocean, From the desert and the plain, From the valley and the mountain, Countless throngs shall rise again. When we see a precious blossom, That we tended with such care, Rudely taken from our bosom, 'Till our aching hearts despair: Round its little grave we linger 'Till the setting sun is low, Feeling all our hopes have perished With the flower we cherished so. Yes, they sleep, but not forever, In the lone and silent grave; Blessed promise! They shall waken, Jesus died the loss to save.

In the dawning of the morning, When this troubled night is o'er, All these souls in beauty blooming, We'll rejoice to see once more. Services under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association, C. B. Shall officiating.

FUNERAL OF W. A. ALWARD.
The funeral services for the late Willis F. Alward were held Monday afternoon at the First M. E. church, Rev. Joseph A. Bennett of Sistersville, W. Va., officiating. Rev. Mr. Bennett was former pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist church in this city, and was a warm personal friend of Mr. Alward. All the funeral services in the city closed during the service at many of the churches and homes. The directors of the board of trade and many members of that body were also present. Roll and Lodge, Knights of Pythias, had charge of the services and attended in a body. The burial service of the order was read at the grave at Cedar Hill cemetery.

"The Witching Food"

Is Finished—It's in Town

For ten years our experts have worked on this delicacy. It has taken just ten years to perfect it.

For ten years they failed on it. Then one day they succeeded. Suddenly the product became a reality.

This is almost the first city to get it.

It is Corn Puffs—dainty, almond-flavored pellets, puffed from the hearts of white corn.

Crisp, toasted, chocolate-colored bubbles.

It is an insidious creation, the acme of cereal dainties—well called "The Witching Food."

In a month it will be the sensation.

CROWD GREET'S BOOSTER TRAIN OF OKLAHOMA

Stopped About Half An Hour Saturday Evening En Route to Wilson's Inauguration.

A large crowd of citizens headed by Mayor Swartz, officers of the Board of Trade and the Newark police force, greeted the "Oklahoma Special," which arrived at the B. & O. depot Saturday evening and stopped in the city about half an hour. The delegation marched up to the court house park, headed by its brass band of 22 pieces, which rendered several selections, to the great enjoyment of a big crowd. The train was en route to the inauguration of President Wilson at Washington.

North and South, since it is situated midway between the two.

One of the prominent members of the party was Robert Galbreath of Tulsa, Okla., formerly of Mt. Sterling, who is Democratic national committeeman of Oklahoma. He went to Oklahoma less than two decades ago from Ohio and since then has become a millionaire while engaged in the oil business in the vicinity of Tulsa. As a complete surprise to Mr. Galbreath, the party had arranged an hour's stopover at Mt. Sterling without informing him. The scheduled stopovers of the train were St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Newark, Zanesville, Wheeling and Pittsburgh.

A novel feature was the publication of a daily newspaper on the train, called the "Oklahoma Booster," edited by J. Burr Gibbons of Tulsa, president of the Oklahoma Press Association.

GETTING GRAY? JUST APPLY A LITTLE SAGE TEA TONIGHT

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Lustre to Hair.

Why suffer the handicap of looking old? Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or marks the face. When it fades, curls gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of this Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundred fold.

Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 30 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations

S. E. SIEGFRIED IS APPOINTED A P. O. INSPECTOR

As a well merited recognition of meritorious work in the past, Mr. S. E. Siegfried, for a number of years assistant postmaster in the local department, has been appointed a postoffice inspector. The appointment was made January 15th, but not made public until today.

Twice during his term as assistant postmaster here, Mr. Siegfried received appointments as postoffice inspector, but twice were the appointments recalled, the reason given being that he could not be released from his work in the Newark office. Mr. Siegfried resigned as assistant last October and went to Cleveland where he entered a law school. However, his appointment came and he left immediately for his work, the district being in the south including the state of Florida. His headquarters are De Funiak Springs, Fla.

The news of Siegfried's promotion will be glad news to his friends here, and is just recognition of duties well performed.

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman With Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Which She Used With Most Remarkable Results.

I was greatly troubled with baldness and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all utterly failed. Many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against hair preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injured the roots of the hair. After my long bout of failures, I finally found a simple prescription which I can unhesitatingly state is beyond doubt the most wonderful remedy for baldness and falling hair. I have a friend who used it two months and during that time it has not only stopped the falling of his hair, but it has grown so thick and so fast that he is now as well as before. You can obtain this wonderful preparation from me. The prescription is as follows:

Bay Rum, 1/2 ounce; Lavender Compound, 1/2 ounce; If you add a few drops of Tolu-Kalon Perfum, which moves the hair ingredients. This preparation is used as follows: Apply it to the scalp and rub it in thoroughly. It will stop the hair from falling and it will grow so thick and so fast that you will be able to comb it and do it up properly. It is a wonderful remedy for baldness and falling hair. It is sold in 3-cent bottles and 10-cent bottles. It is sold in 3-cent bottles and 10-cent bottles. It is sold in 3-cent bottles and 10-cent bottles.

DR. ROWLANDS' SUNDAY TALK ON CURRENT EVENTS

Dr. Rowlands' Sunday evening sermons are a talk on current events. Last night's talk was on "The Baptists and the World." The first of the important events themselves are the passage of the States Congress traffic an outlay prohibition. Up to this time the state declared none of the state, neither state, yet by national government, pursued on the prohibition.

Having gone over all of the others, Eph Wiley says the chief objection to the cigarette is that it's a poor smoke.

A hen has this advantage over a woman. She knows where the rooster spends his evenings.

There has been some talk about the cannon's mouth, but the real test of a man's courage is the church wedding.

A dog has his problems. Opportunities to bury a bone and chase a cat often come coincidentally.

Few persons are able to collect dividends on the time devoted to the study of cube root.

A criminal in one state was a law-abiding citizen in the state over the line who could dishonor and insult it with his violations of its laws. The inconsistency, and folly of such a condition would have been ludicrous if it had not been a travesty on government and a menace to order and law. The bill passed last week remedies this wrong. It declares that a man is a criminal not only in his own state, but also when he breaks the laws of one state while he lives in another. Crime is crime no matter where committed. Geography is not an element to be considered in the definition of lawlessness. When the liquor trade is declared an outlaw by a state, the citizens of the neighboring state must not any more send their own outlaws there to violate its laws, so declares this bill.

The other event is the change of administration. The Federal government in both executive and legislative departments passes under control of another political party. The saddest feature in the administration of President Taft has been his veto of that beneficent bill. No one need question his motive, but accept his plea that the bill may be unconstitutional. In view of the fact that the bill was passed by large majorities in both houses, and the members have among them some of the greatest lawyers of the nation, in view also of the cry of the decent, the moral, the religious elements of the people for such a law to restrain an outlawed traffic, the president's excuse for vetoing the bill is far from acceptable. He might on the eve of his retirement gracefully have left the question to the will of the people to decide as represented by congressmen, or to the wisdom of the Supreme Court to consider its constitutionality.

This is a most significant rebuke of the veto of the president that the bill was passed over his veto by an overwhelming majority in both houses; nor was his veto much considered. He is said to be the worst beaten candidate that ever ran for the high office of the presidency, but were the election held today such is the public sentiment against this bill that his defeat would be still more overwhelming. His defeat last year was the defeat of his party, but now it could be a personal defeat. This would be a president who has wrought so many wise and good things in his administration should cover himself with such a misfortune as he goes out of office into private life. Welcome to the incoming president says every loyal American.

To Our Friends and Neighbors

You know us. You know we would not—that we could not afford to go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant to take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Rexall Ordinies are made of and on observation of very many severe cases in which they have proven their merit.

Try them at Our Risk

If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also—if you are not entirely satisfied with them—we will refund your money—and we will do that on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Isn't that fair?

Just let the bowels fail in properly doing their work—just let their action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that should have been dispelled remain to poison the system. Headaches, biliousness, nervousness and other tormenting and serious ills are common when the bowels fail to act daily as nature intended. All this may be avoided, if you will accept our advice.

Rexall Ordinies

taste just like candy. They are soothing and easy on action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Ordinies promote better spirits and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before. We particularly recommend Rexall Ordinies for children, aged and delicate persons.

Rexall Ordinies come in vest-pocket tin boxes, 12 tablets, 10c; 36 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c.
